

News Statement

Alabama Department of Public Safety

March 18, 2011

Agents with the Alabama Bureau of Investigation Division of the Alabama Department of Public Safety today arrested a police chief in Monroe County in connection with a rape that allegedly occurred in that county.

At the request of Tommy Chapman, District Attorney for Conecuh and Monroe counties, ABI agents began an investigation regarding the rape allegation against Chief Ronald Marshall of the Frisco City Police Department. Marshall was arrested at the Monroe County Jail on one count of rape in the first degree, with bond set at $100,000; and one count of ethics violation, with bond set at $5,000.

No additional information is available for release in connection with this ongoing investigation.